St Polycarp: St Polycarp was converted to Christianity by St John the Evangelist. He was about 86 when the Roman pro-consul urged him to renounce Christ and save his life. St Polycarp replied “For 86 years I have served him and he has never wronged me. How can I renounce the King who has saved me?” He was executed and his body burnt.

Have a Chuckle:

Two priests were invited to a farmers anniversary celebrations. The farmers wife had cooked two chickens and said that the remains, after the visitors had gone, would do for the family dinner the next day. But the hungry priests eat all the chickens and left only the bones. Later the farmer was showing his visitors around the farm when an old cockerel started to crow ad lib. “Seems mighty proud of himself,” said one of the visitors. “No wonder,” growled the farmer, “he’s got two sons in the priesthood.
