Church Hall: It will be much appreciated if all those who use the parish hall could ensure before leaving the premises that the heating and lights turned off and that the doors, including the fire door/s are securely locked. In recent times the heating has been left on for substantial number of hours. Your cooperation will be much appreciated. Let us save energy and keep the premises secure.

Sacristan: I am repeating my request for help with the sacristy work, both on weekdays and weekends. A great deal of planning and preparation go into our liturgical celebrations. This would also involve coming earlier and returning everything back in their places. Anyone generous and willing to help is welcome. – Fr. Arul Samy

Readers: We need more Readers to help at our Masses at weekends and on weekdays. Anyone willing to help, please speak to Fr. Arul

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER & REFLECT

HOLY COMMUNION: If you are not a Roman Catholic, a member of a church in full communion with it, or an Orthodox unable to attend an Orthodox Liturgy, you are warmly invited to come forward for a blessing at the time of Holy Communion. Holy Communion cannot be given to all, as it is for us the sign of unity in the faith.

Communion is not bread and wine, but the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of God the Son. Let us pray for true unity among all Christians, as God wills. As for Catholics, we need always to remember the truth of the Blessed Sacrament and receive Jesus with care, attention, and reverence, as well as offering the Mass with attention and without causing unnecessary distractions to others by moving about at the most sacred moments. Disturb Us, Lord

Disturb us, Lord, when
We are too well pleased with ourselves,
When our dreams have come true
Because we have dreamed too little,
When we arrived safely
Because we sailed too close to the shore.

Disturb us, Lord, when
With the abundance of things we possess
We have lost our thirst
For the waters of life;
Having fallen in love with life,
We have ceased to dream of eternity
And in our efforts to build a new earth,
We have allowed our vision
Of the new Heaven to dim.

Disturb us, Lord, to dare more boldly,
To venture on wider seas
Where storms will show your mastery;
Where losing sight of land,
We shall find the stars.

We ask You to push back
The horizons of our hopes;
And to push into the future
In strength, courage, hope, and love.
